A modern, white, wall-hung toilet is mounted on a wall of large, light-colored square tiles. To the left of the toilet, a tall, clear glass vase holds two green, sculptural plants with twisted trunks. The vase sits on a reflective surface, creating a clear reflection. Above the toilet, a small, square, chrome-finished light fixture is mounted on the wall. To the right of the toilet, a chrome-finished toilet paper holder is mounted on the wall, holding a roll of white toilet paper. The floor is made of large, light-colored square tiles. The overall aesthetic is clean, modern, and minimalist.
